On the agenda.....

- Calendar Report
- Christmas Show
- Financial Status
- Archives

FROM OUR OCTOBER MEETING

Our first fall business meeting was well attended ..... with old and new and associate members ready for action.

After we rearranged the time and particulars for the Christmas show, John Hanniford volunteered to gather a crew for the hanging. Ann Moran hopes to provide a musical group again this year as part of her reception plan.

The '92 season's calendar came under scrutiny and a committee was assigned to work out the details for presentation at the November meeting. Space is being accounted for another Audubon show in the spring.....along with the annual children's show and the annual Women's Club exhibition.

Our treasurer, Ed Moran, brought us up-to-date with our financial and incorporation status.....as he continues to work industriously to straighten out our complex affairs.

ARTISTS AT WORK

In her fourth year of teaching at the Lyman Allyn, JOANNE BALLINGER (886-0366) has a Friday morning pastel class. New classes will be forming in January.....LOU BONAMARTE has an exhibition of oils and watercolors running at the Goldsmith Gallery in Madison... "From the Road".....thru November 30th.....RACHEL ARMSTRONG has a showing of landscapes at Studio 33 in Stonington thru November 2nd.

CHRISTMAS SHOW

Our holiday exhibit has been set to open on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23rd with our annual Christmas reception and continue through SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8th.

NOVEMBER
20 & 21

The days for RECEIVING work will be WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20 & 21 between 9 AM and 4:30 PM. The show will be hung on Friday, November 22. Pick-up at the end of the show will be on Sunday, December 8 OR Monday, December 9.

We must place our emphasis on small work.....keeping the quality at our usual high level .....but pricing as modestly as possible. Sign-ups for gallery sitting will start at the upcoming business meeting. Check your calendar and be prepared.

ARCHIVES

Lida Fry and Rachel Armstrong have taken on the challenging job of enlarging the archives of the Lyme Art Association. They are asking for everyone interested in contributing MEMORIES (oral histories from our members who have a long association with the gallery).....or MEMORABILIA which they could bring to the gallery meetings to add to our files.

We all know there are a lot of good stories to be recounted. If you would like to spend a pleasant hour or two reminiscing call Lida at 464-0289 or Rachel at 739-4657 and set up a date
